Other Attacks By Air on Oil Installations Of Germans

By Gladwin Hill
LONDON, July 12—(AP)—Nearly 2,000 American planes battered the great south German city of Munich again today while another force from Italy struck once more into the south of France, bombing four rail targets.

More than 1,200 of the planes assaulting Munich on this second successive day were heavy bombers; the rest were long range fighters. The Swiss said three planes landed on their territory. Up to 750 fighters convoyed the Fortresses and Liberators to Germany's fourth largest city, a railway bottleneck for traffic into Italy and France.

The German communiqué said the assault of 1,100 heavy bombers on the Munich region yesterday was a "terror attack."

Raid Oil Installations
SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, AEF, July 12—(AP)—American air attacks on 64 German oil installations have curtailed the enemy's petroleum production to a point where the shortage is having an important effect on the mobility of Nazi ground forces, a senior U. S. air force officer declared today.

The objective of thwarting German mobility has been "achieved," this officer said.

He said the German air force, the other chief object of United States air attacks in recent months, was decreasing in strength in France. He said the Nazi force had lost more planes than the Germans could produce every month since January.

The exact German air strength in Germany itself is not known definitely, but the current opposition over the Reich is not comparable to the interception strength as recently as January.

Sixteen Dead Due Plane Crash

SOUTH PORTLAND, Me., July 12—(AP)—The death toll in Maine's worst aviation tragedy reached 16 early today. Scores of other persons were injured when a light army plane ploughed into a war workers' camp of 100 trailers and blew up.

Six of the dead and approximately half of the injured were children. Nine adults also perished.

The identified dead:

Lt. Philip I. Russell, 23, of South Portland and Staff Sgt. Wallace Mifflin, of Seattle, Wash., the plane's crew; Edward A. Gerish, 32, Orono shipyard worker; James Little, four; Nancy Little, two; Gordon Gorham, 42; and George Robertson, nine months.

Bodies of the other victims who were trapped in lightly-built homes and burned to death by flaming gasoline and oil awaited identification at funeral homes.

The plane was from Barksdale Field, La.

Twenty-three injured were admitted to hospitals for treatment, ten of them being discharged later. An unidentified number, whose injuries did not require hospitalization, were treated at the scenes by doctors and nurses.

Bountiful Harvest Is Rolling in

KANSAS CITY, July 12.—(AP)—The harvest, almost unbelievably bountiful, is rolling in.

Granaries, elevators and mills are gorged with the wheat. Railroads already overburdened and weighted down with war, chug heavily along with load after load of the grain.

Still the wheat piles up, bright, golden mounds—by the racks and in the fields.

Representatives of railroads, mills, elevators, government agencies and the army met here today with Sen. Clyde M. Reed (R-Kas.) to decide how to solve the problem of plenty.

Reed said the chief worries were: (1) too few boxcars, (2) too few helpers to get the cars unloaded quickly and back into service.

One possible source of labor, Reed said, was the Army's Seventh Service Command at Omaha. He has telegraphed the command to ask how many prisoners of war would be available (Reed has heard there may be as many as 6,000) to help unload wheat.

Jefferson City Votes for Airport

JEFFERSON CITY, July 12—(AP)—A $185,000 airport bond issue was approved yesterday by Jefferson City voters, $2,039 to 916, barely winning the required two-thirds majority.

Bids for constructing the proposed airport will be asked immediately, city officials said. Options have been taken on a proposed site in Callaway county across the Missouri river from the capital.

Accident is Fatal Tuesday To Oren Brown

Farm Worker Hit by Trailer At Muddy Bridge

While working on a private telephone line at the Muddy Creek bridge on north highway 65 about 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, Oren S. Brown, 43, apparently was struck by a flat-top trailer truck, suffering severe injuries and shock which resulted in his death a few hours later at Bothwell hospital.

Brown, a worker on the W. A. Claycomb farm, was standing on the bridge several feet north of the south end, while helping Bruce Claycomb and Thomas Alexander, a neighbor, put up the line and repair it. At the time he was hit, it was reported, he was standing near the rail of the bridge. The truck was going north.

Driver From Bolivar
According to Lloyd Amos, state highway trooper, who investigated the accident, the driver of the Ford truck was William Creed Walker, aged 32 years, of Bolivar, Mo., route 3, who was considering the purchase of the vehicle from Robert N. Wegener, of Higginsville. The latter also was riding in the truck.

According to witnesses, when apparently struck by the trailer of the truck, Brown fell over the bridge rail into the water below, his clothing badly torn. He was assisted from the water by the other men, lifted into a car which was following the truck and rushed to the hospital. He died at 10:18 o'clock.

The accident happened so quickly the men with Brown and the driver of the truck could not definitely outline just how it occurred.

Lived On The Farm
The bridge is located about two miles south of the Claycomb farm near where the private telephone line connects with a party line. Brown, who has worked for the Claycombs for a little more than two years, lived with his family in a tenant house on their farm.

He is believed to have received his injuries in the battle on Saipan island.

Trucks Be Used To Collect the Waste Paper

Trucks are needed for the wastepaper collection campaign. Truck owners may call the Chamber of Commerce office Thursday to volunteer the use of their trucks for next Sunday afternoon beginning at 2 o'clock. The trucks will be used to haul newspapers, magazines, and corrugated paper board from the home of Sedalia to the salvage dealers. Two Boy Scouts will be assigned to each truck with a driver to assist in the gathering of wastepaper.

A Boy Scout will also be assigned to each square block in the city. It will be his duty to remind the local citizens of the campaign and assist taking the paper to the curb where necessary.

Next Sunday will mark the third one-day wastepaper collection campaign held in Sedalia since the first of this year. It is to be the most successful campaign to date in the amount of paper collected. The full cooperation of local citizens, truck owners, and Boy Scouts will bring more wastepaper than any other such drive held in Sedalia.

Talks to Lure Turkey into War

By Frank O'Brien

ANKARA, July 11.—(Delayed)—(AP)—Conversations are afoot here which may lead to Turkish participation in the war before the end of the summer.

The talks are between representatives of Turkey, Russia and Britain.

These conferences of the Soviet and British ambassadors and Turkish leaders, principally Premier Sukru Saracoglu, have been taken up at the point where the Cairo conference last year left Turkey's position within the United Nations undefined.

They must first surmount the bitterness created by Allied charges that Turkey failed to keep her word and the Turkish counter that the Allies failed completely to equip Turkey for war as had been promised. Actual military talks can begin there.

The United States has been fully informed of the successive steps in the conversations, which got under way about 10 days ago. Simultaneous consultations are taking place in Moscow and London and probably in Washington.

The Turks are said to feel that it would be beneath their national dignity to participate in the war by merely giving bases to the Allies.

Lee Taylor, Wounded In Action, Dies

Mrs. E. G. Bowlin, 1522 East Fifth street, received a message Tuesday notifying her that her nephew, Lee Taylor, 20, was injured in military action June 13 and died June 15. He was stationed in England and was the son of Mrs. Rosie Taylor of Eldon. His father, Cleve Taylor, was killed instantly 11 years ago in the railroad shops at Pueblo, Colo. Besides his mother, Lee leaves a brother, Arthur of the navy, who is somewhere on the waters.

Asserts Title Use 'A Pretext'

Brownell Makes Comment on FDR's Statement

By William W. Tyler

ALBANY, N. Y., July 12.—(AP)—Herbert Brownell, Jr., national Republican chairman, today asserted President Roosevelt was using the title of commander-in-chief as "a pretext to perpetuate himself in political office."

Brownell, who was an overnight guest of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, Republican presidential nominee, was asked at a press conference for comment on the president's statement that he would "as a good soldier," accept fourth term nomination.

"Mr. Roosevelt is the first of 32 presidents of the United States to claim that the title of commander-in-chief makes him a soldier and to use that title as a pretext to perpetuate himself in political office," the national chairman declared.

"On Nov. 4, 1940, Mr. Roosevelt made this statement: 'You will have a new president in 1944,'" Brownell said, adding:

"When he said that he was right."

Brownell said he and the government's president's statement was "my own" but he disclosed he had shown it to Dewey at breakfast in the executive mansion.

Gains Definite for the Campaign in Normandy

By William Frye

WASHINGTON, July 12.—(AP)—

The campaign in Normandy, now a little more than five weeks old, may appear to be moving slowly, but military men here agreed today with Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's verdict that "our gains have been definite and concrete."

At D-Day time there were estimates that the first five weeks would be crucial; their gains can now be summarized in this fashion:

(1) The Allies came ashore, with far fewer casualties than they were prepared to pay, in an operation that could have been a catastrophe if luck had been bad instead of good.

(2) Ashore, the armies pushed inland and established a firm beachhead, cut across the Contentin peninsula to gain the sea instead of German forces on their right flank, and seized the port of Cherbourg.

(3) The beachhead has been organized as a base of operations, and the Allies have been able to continue their accumulation of men and supplies there for future operations.

(4) Enormous casualties have been inflicted on the enemy, with 54,000 of his men captured and

Col. Salisbury Is Presented With Red Star

Sedalian in Command of Air Wing Bases

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, July 12.—(AP)—Col. Arthur G. Salisbury of Sedalia, Mo., commander of a U. S. Ninth Air Force fighter wing based in France, was presented the Soviet Order of the Red Star at ceremonies today in Normandy.

Premier-Marshall Stalin ordered the decoration for the 27-year-old fighter pilot in recognition of his outstanding leadership during the African, Sicilian and Italian campaigns.

It was Salisbury's group which inflicted the famous Palm Sunday massacre on the Germans when Marshal Rommel attempted to escape from Cap Bon in Tunisia. Between 70 and 80 German transports and fighters were destroyed and 50 others were damaged in this vicious aerial battle. Salisbury also wears the Legion of Merit, Distinguished Flying Cross, Purple Heart, Air Medal with four oak leaf clusters, a presidential unit citation, and the British Distinguished Flying Cross.

'Gas' Stamps for 1500 Gallons Stolen

Gasoline rationing stamps valued at 1,500 gallons were stolen from the Swofford-Service Station at Fourth street and Osage avenue, it was reported to the police. The stamps had already been pasted on large sheets of paper ready to be given to the bulk plant.

A report of the loss was also made to the rationing board.

KSD Applies for a Television License

ST. LOUIS, July 12.—(AP)—The first application for a television license in the St. Louis area has been filed with the federal communications commission by radio station KSD.

Intended range of the television station would be a 50-mile radius from downtown St. Louis.

undetermined thousands more killed and wounded.

Still Enlarge Beachhead

With that in mind, it becomes possible to assess what is happening on the beachhead now. And the first point to be made is that the beachhead is still being enlarged, still being built up as a base of operations—no spectacular offensives have been launched, because General Eisenhower does not propose to start something he can't finish.

If the Germans had shown any ability to mass important forces against the beachhead, Montgomery might have been forced to move boldly with a major attack to knock the enemy off balance and keep him that way. But the Nazis have been unable to launch a counter offensive, and so Montgomery is holding his Sunday punch on the basis that there is no point in achieving a breakthrough until he is ready to exploit it.

Accordingly, the fighting now in progress in Normandy is strictly local in character. At the British end of the line, the port of Caen has been taken, and British and Canadian troops in savage local fighting—but still local—are pushing to enlarge their positions to make it safe for use as a supply port.

Favors a Post-War Military Force

WASHINGTON, July 12.—(AP)—Maintenance of a formidable post-war military air force, with stand-by aircraft production plants ready for any emergency, was proposed today by Robert P. Patterson, undersecretary of war.

He coupled the recommendations with proposals for vast expansion of civilian flying.

Soviets in A Dash Westward

May Carry the Fighting to German Soil By Week End

By Eddy Gilmore

MOSCOW, July 12.—(AP)—The Red army, knocking large new holes in the already sagging German lines, slogged westward today from a point less than 49 miles east of the East Prussian border at a pace which, if continued, would carry the fighting to German soil by the end of the week.

Gen. Ivan Cherniakhovsky's cavalry and tanks drove the spearhead toward East Prussia in a 20-mile advance where the spit of the province known as the Swalki triangle sticks out north of Grodno.

General advances along the entire 350-mile front between Latvia and the Pripjat marshes swept through more than 400 places yesterday, killing at least 4,000 German soldiers and bringing about the capture of hundreds more.

The new forward sweeps placed the Red army actually within striking distances of Kaunas, 45 miles away; Grodno, 56; Bialystok, 51; and Daugavpils, less than 18. Military observers in Moscow saw a direct threat to Bialystok and Grodno in the strong central blow. Pinsk, at the edge of the Pripjat marshes to the south, already was lost tactically to the Nazis, although resistance continued there.

(As the Russians sped onward, the German radio commentator Kurt Dittmar last night gravely

Forces of U. S. Gain in Italy

Push Ahead in The Face of Strong Nazi Resistance

By Edward Kennedy

ROME, July 12.—(AP)—American light armored elements pushed forward two miles along the Italian west coast yesterday in the face of bitter German resistance and captured the town of Castiglione, thus bringing the Fifth Army to within eight miles of Livorno (Leghorn).

Some eight miles inland, however, American infantry ran into stiff opposition while advancing from Casale toward Pastina, where the Germans showed the utmost determination to delay their progress.

American troops further east also encountered tough going northeast of Lajatico, where the Nazis counterattacked fiercely, but they repelled the thrust and Lajatico itself was brought under attack. Late dispatches from the field said the Nazis still were holding out within the town.

In the upper Tiber valley Eighth Army troops occupied the villages of Meone Morra and Mucignano and cleared 3,000-foot-high Mount Civitella of the enemy.

Cross Nestore River

At the same time Allied tanks crossed the Nestore river, upper tributary of the Tiber, and advanced.

Nurses Commissioned Be Actual Officers

WASHINGTON, July 12.—(AP)—President Roosevelt today ordered all army nurses commissioned as actual army officers in lieu of the relative rank they now hold.

The effect of the executive order will give nurses, female dietitians and physical therapy personnel of the army medical department the full authority of their officer rank. Heretofore nurses have been commissioned by relative rank, somewhat limiting their authority.

Assaults From the American Forces Get More Violent

Head of U. S. C. of C. Back From Russia

NEW YORK, July 12.—(AP)—Eric Johnston, president of the United States Chamber of Commerce, returned in an army transport plane today from a visit of eight weeks in Russia.

Soviets Open New Offensive

LONDON, July 12.—(AP)—Opening a new offensive on the second Baltic front, Red army troops have advanced 30 miles on a 90-mile front and captured Idritsa, 40 miles northwest of nevel.

Soviet troops captured 1,000 other populated places along with Idritsa, 60 miles north of Polotsk, Premier-Marshall Stalin announced tonight in an order of the day.

TODAY ON THE War Fronts

U. S. PACIFIC FLEET
HEADQUARTERS, Pearl Harbor, July 12.—(AP)—Japanese holdings along more than 4,000 miles from the Kuriles to Ceram were listed in latest advices today as targets of the Allied air arm.

On the sea, American warships shelled Guam Sunday for the second straight day. (Tokyo radio said that between July 1 and 10 Guam has been raided by 770 planes which caused "some damage.")

CHUNGKING, July 12.—(AP)—Striking northward in the Kwangtung province, the Japanese left wing west of the Canton-Hankow railway has reached a point 12 miles from strategically important Ying-tak, the Chinese high command said tonight.

LONDON, July 12.—(AP)—A Madrid dispatch to the London News Chronicle today said it was reported in the Spanish capital that Germany has made at least six attempts to gain a negotiated peace since February — the last one shortly before Hitler's "never capitulate" speech last week.

The News Chronicle said it is reported the first was tried in February when Gen. Baron Alexander von Falkenhausen flew to Lisbon, the next after the fall of Rome, and four since the invasion of Normandy.

SOUTHEAST ASIA COMMAND HEADQUARTERS, Kandy, Ceylon, July 12.—(AP)—Lt. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's campaign to root the Japanese from monsoon-drenched north Burma and drive a land supply route to China reached another minor milestone yesterday with the juncture of the Chinese 22nd and 38th divisions about seven miles west of Mogaung.

Cecil D. Price is Wounded in Action

Mr. and Mrs. William D. Price, 4140 South street, Omaha, Neb., received word July 10 from the Red Cross that their son, Pvt. Cecil D. Price, brother of Mrs. John A. Rush, 1423 East Fourth street, Sedalia, was wounded in action while fighting in France.

He was returned to England and is in a hospital there.

Pvt. Price, who was called into service in April, 1943, was in the armored division and has been overseas since December of 1943.

Force Added Withdrawals By the Nazis in Peninsula Area

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, July 12.—(AP)—American troops destroyed more than 20 German tanks in beating off counter-attacks against their positions west of St. Jean de Daye, headquarters announced today.

South of La Haye Du Puits, doughboys took the village of Angerville Sur Ay, and La Bourdonnerie, advancing to within about two miles of Lessay.

Around Caen, British and Canadian lines were pushed back between the Odon and Orne rivers, and the village of Louvigny was lost.

By Wes Gallagher

SUPREME HEADQUARTERS, Allied Expeditionary Force, July 12.—(AP)—Violent new American assaults on the west end of the Normandy front forced the Germans into fresh withdrawals down the Cherbourg peninsula today after ferocious counterattacks along the whole battle line had cost the Nazis 124 of their precious tanks.

Lessening enemy artillery fire south of La Haye Du Puits indicated the Germans were in retreat before the American onslaught, which had pushed to within three miles of Lessay, enemy coastal anchor, and the whole Nazi flank at Periers was threatened from the east and the south.

Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's offensive around Caen made little progress and lost ground in some places in fierce fighting.

The supreme command's communique No. 73 announced 28 German tanks had been destroyed and 16 more damaged by air attacks near St. Lo, Hottot and Vimont. Vimont is south of Troarn, which is east of Caen. Field dispatches disclosed 80 Nazi tanks had been destroyed around Caen in 72 hours.

Field Marshal Gen. Erwin Rommel's blazing counterattacks struck everywhere except south of La Haye Du Puits, but the heaviest came at Colombelles, along the river Orne in the Caen sector, which the British had captured the day before.

Germans Rush In Tanks

Here the Germans pushed in both tanks and infantry and today the exact position of British lines, which at one time reached the outskirts of Faubourg de Vaucelles, remained obscure.

The next heaviest fighting was going around St. Lo, where the Americans had pushed south to within two miles of that Nazi fortress town.

Crack German troops attacked violently and bitter battles resulted. The American push had endangered the whole German western flank from St. Lo to the sea.

The doughboys made their largest gain in a three-quarters of a mile drive south of La Meauffe along the Vire river four miles north of St. Lo. It was south of St. Lo that American Thunderbolts caught a German panzer column on the open road and destroyed or damaged 31 armored vehicles.

RAF rocket-firing aircraft accounted for 16 others in heavy fighting around Hottot and Vimont.

British troops forced their way forward for limited gains in the fighting around Hottot, south of Tilly-Sur-Seuilles, and the Germans reacted violently.

Only limited gains were made by Lt. Gen. Omar N. Bradley's forces west of the Vire river and south of Carentan, but the threat in these two sectors forced the

Prepare For Civilian Production

Full Program To be Placed in Effect Saturday
By STERLING F. GREEN
WASHINGTON, July 11.—(P)—The War Production Board announced tonight that Chairman Donald M. Nelson's full program to prepare industry for civilian production will be ordered into effect beginning Saturday.

The only concession to army and navy opponents of the plan is in staggered dates which defer operation of part of the plan to August 15.

The announcement climaxed a stormy inter-agency battle in which Nelson, convalescing from pneumonia, was opposed by the war and navy departments and the War Manpower Commission on grounds that the announced program would divert labor from arms production.

The deferment of the most sweeping of the four Nelson orders until mid-August, will "give the War Manpower Commission more time to perfect its organization and administrative controls," said Charles E. Wilson, WPB executive vice-chairman, in announcing the agency's decision.

Ratified By Board
The staggered program was ratified by the full War Production Board, including its military members, in a brief, almost perfunctory session this afternoon. Terms of the agreement had been worked out privately after War Mobilization Director James F. Byrnes sent word to the disputants to adjust their differences quickly.

The final order, effective in mid-August, will permit WPB field offices to authorize the manufacture of civilian goods hitherto prohibited or restricted, in the plants of companies which have labor and machinery not needed in the war effort.

Gives Order Dates
Wilson gave these dates for the other three orders which are the government's opening—but extremely modest—steps toward the ultimate demobilization of industry:

Next Saturday, July 15, restrictions on the use of aluminum and magnesium will be lifted, since these metals are in surplus supply. The action will permit the light metals to replace other materials in goods which already are being manufactured. It will not increase the total output of civilian products, but special programs are expected to follow removal of the flat ban on the non-war use of aluminum and magnesium.

July 22 an order will take effect permitting the manufacture of working models of post-war civilian products, for experimental purposes. The building of such models will be given priority aid, but will not be permitted to hinder war or essential civilian production.

July 29 an order will be issued allowing manufacturers to place orders for machine tools and equipment which will be needed when industry is reconverted to peacetime products. Such orders will carry low priority ratings, or none, and may be filled only after war needs are taken care of.

Hormones for Fruit
Hundreds of thousands of bushels of sound fruit of better color, size and quality will be harvested in 1944 with smaller picking crews because growers plan to inhibit pre-harvest drop by spraying or dusting apple and pear trees with hormone growth regulators.

12 Bushels Corn: 1 Shell

Canadian Air Force Girls Land at SAAF

On Leave Two Visitors Greatly Enjoy Their Trip

On a fourteen-day leave from their jobs at Hagersville, Ontario, Marian Atkinson and Betty Burgess of the women's division of the Royal Canadian Air Force, discovered the Troop Carrier Command, when they landed at Sedalia Army Air Field during an attempt to see as much of the United States as possible while on leave.

Starting from Canada by train, they saw Michigan, Ohio, Tennessee and Kentucky. It was at Lexington, Ky., that they reached a C-47 enroute to SAAF and boarded the plane for the short "flip"—Canadian slang for plane ride.

"It was the first time we had ridden on this type of transport plane and we enjoyed the trip exceedingly," said Betty Burgess. "I thought of my brother, who is a paratrooper in Italy. He rides in these planes, too."

Arriving at the base on Monday, the girls were quartered at the WAC barracks, where they exchanged experiences and views with their American cousins-in-uniform. The girls are stationed at No. 16 Service Flying School in Hagersville.

Marian is 22 years old and comes from Toronto. In civilian life she was a stenographer and switchboard operator and now serves as secretary to the chief flying instructor of the school in the control tower. She wears a ribbon signifying that she has served two years with the WDRCAF (Women's Division of the RCAF).

Brothers in Service
Betty is 21 and hails from Hamilton, Ontario. She has been in the service for eighteen months. A radio operator before her enlistment, Betty holds the position of equipment assistant at the school. She has two brothers in the service; one, a paratrooper in Italy and the other with the Royal Canadian Army Service Corps.

Both girls hold the rating of Leading Air Women, corresponding to private first class. They don't wear chevrons but wear propeller insignia instead. Only corporals and above wear chevrons and theirs are just like ours, except in reverse position, with the peak at the bottom.

With the ambition of seeing as much of the U. S. as possible during their leave, the girls started out from Hagersville last week. They skipped New York, because (although they've never been there) they can make it on a 3-day pass. They get a weekend pass every two weeks.

SAAF served as a stopping-off place for the two W.D.'s, who headed for Kansas City on Tuesday afternoon. Returning here on Saturday, they will "pick up another flip" in the general direction of their station.

Duties Very Similar
The young Canadian service women had this to say on the subject of comparison between their organization and the WAC. They have a one-month basic training period, followed by a course of specialized training to qualify them for a specific job. WACs receive six weeks of basic training. Their barracks are quite similar to those of our own women in uniform. They, too, have double-deck bunks.

Upon landing at SAAF both girls were impressed with the size of the field, their own station being much smaller. Neither of them had ever seen a glider before, except in pictures. Marian says she'd love to ride in one, but Betty feels that she'd "be scared to go up in one of them."

The young ladies think our service club is swell. They have canteens, which are smaller and more numerous than service clubs. Men and women have separate canteens. A special one is provided for sergeants and above, while another is frequented by "junior non-commissioned officers" only.

In the RCAF a manning table is known as an "establishment."

There are two grades below a Leading Air Woman, who is just below the rank of corporal. But here's what an LAW must go through to become a corporal. First, she must pass a drill test and Girl Scout Day Camp July 24 to July 28 inclusive at "The Little House," Sedalia Girl Scout camp, southwest of town, 9:30 a. m. to 3:30 p. m. daily. Registration blanks will be mailed this week. These must be signed by the parents and returned to the Girl Scout office in the county court house not later than July 19; sooner if possible.

Free transportation both ways—leaving Smith-Cotton high school at 9:30 and returning at 4 o'clock. All intermediate and senior Girl Scouts of Sedalia are eligible to attend Day camp. No girl will be permitted to stay over night unless she has had two years of intermediate scouting or is 12 years old or over. Girls be able to drill at least fifty people efficiently. If she passes that, she becomes an acting corporal. After she's been an acting corporal for three months, she can, upon recommendation, become a temporary corporal, which rank corresponds to our own corporal rating.

Betty and Marian are enthusiastic about the U. S. and state that they have been treated very well by American people.

"And we appreciate it," Marian adds.

"If some of the WACs would come to visit us, we'd be glad to reciprocate their kindness."

wanting to do over night camping must arrange for their own tent, bed clothing, cooking utensils and food. An adult must be with every eight girls.

An opportunity will be given girls who want to do badge work, as well as other activities carried on in day camps.

Hand craft materials will be provided at a small cost.

The Girl Scouts believe, with modern educators and psychologists, that the girl who goes to camp for a day or a week has there a unique and unhampered opportunity to develop as a person in her own right; to find her own place in a group of girls her own age; and to seek out new interests with the guidance of trained and understanding counselors.

Mrs. Harry Lambirth will be camp director, assisted by Mrs. P. Cecil Owen. Mrs. Lambirth and Mrs. Owen took a special course on camp life at Camp Pin Oak, Kaiser, Mo., early in June under the direction of Mrs. Robert Ricketts, a national staff member.

Mrs. A. A. Studebaker, commissioner, is general chairman of camp week and will be assisted by other council members.

The picnic planned for Troop 33 for Tuesday was postponed because of rain and will be held instead on Thursday. Members of the troop are asked to meet Mrs. John Rucker at Broadway school at 11 o'clock Thursday morning bringing with them a nosebag and lunch.

HEALTH QUIZ

Do you have poor digestion? ☐ YES ☐ NO
Do you feel headachy after eating? ☐ YES ☐ NO
Do you get sour or upset easily? ☐ YES ☐ NO
Do you feel tired—listless? ☐ YES ☐ NO

Do you feel headachy and upset due to poorly digested food? To feel cheerful and happy again your food must be digested properly.

Each day, Nature must produce about two pints of a vital digestive juice to help digest your food. If Nature fails, your food may remain undigested—leaving you headachy and irritable.

Therefore, you must increase the flow of this digestive juice. Carter's Little Liver Pills increase this flow quickly—often in as little as 30 minutes. And, you're on the road to feeling better.

Don't depend on artificial aids to counteract indigestion—when Carter's Little Liver Pills aid digestion after Nature's own order. Take Carter's Little Liver Pills as directed. Get them at any drugstore. Only 10c and 25c

WASHINGTON July 12 — President Roosevelt is not the easiest person to give advice to, but some of those around him are trying to figure out ways and means of telling him to keep his political enemies out of choice spots inside his own White House.

One man they have in mind is Fred Searls, Jr., who recently contributed $2,000 to the Dewey campaign, but who has an office inside the White House as the right hand man of Justice Jimmy Byrnes and Will Clayton. He is No. 1 aide in the disposal of vital surplus war property for which all the big companies are scrambling.

Last week, Senator Scrugham of Nevada and his subcommittee on small mining business issued a scathing blast against Fred Searls, charging him with holding up the production of U. S. mineral for the benefit of big foreign mining firms. Searls is a heavy investor in mines in Africa and Canada which compete with American mines and the committee's inference was that Searls was helping his own foreign companies.

Searls is the mainpring of the Newmont Mining company, considered a J. P. Morgan concern, which controls 28 large mines in Africa, South America and the Orient. He is also a director of a half dozen other African, Canadian and Oriental mines.

Searls' Influence
Before coming over to the White House, Searls was with the WPB facilities bureau, where he could grant, or deny facilities to mining firms. The senate committee, in criticizing him, quoted from a letter written soon after Pearl Harbor in which, as a WPB official, Searls opposed any increase in U. S. production of copper, zinc and other scarce metals.

"This," according to the senate committee, "was certainly placing the cart before the horse with a vengeance. Unfortunately, this Searls policy, which could only have been based on a short-war viewpoint, was adopted by and steadily influenced many of the War Production Board mineral divisions . . . its committees and its successors to date."

"As production adviser to office of War Mobilization Director Byrnes," continued the senate report, "it is not to be expected that Searls' influence has been less than it was in his previous inferior position."

Actually, Searls, simultaneously with being one of the ten largest contributors to Dewey, has been promoted. He is now right hand man to Will Clayton in disposing of surplus properties. Working closely with him is another J. P. Morgan man and an official in the Newmont Mining company, Franz Schneider.

Acting with Clayton, former head of the world's largest cotton firm, these two have virtual final word over what is to become of U. S. government war plants that have cost the taxpayers millions.

"Old Army" Armstrong
When U. S. B-29's rained explosives on Japan's steel works, there was a story behind the scenes regarding the officer who trained those expert pilots.

That officer is Brig. Gen. Frank A. Armstrong, one of the most daring and best-loved officers ever to fly a plane over Germany. For months, Armstrong based in England, was in command of raid after raid over enemy territory — and led them himself. At that time, he held the rank of colonel. Several times, planes were almost shot out from under him, but he kept on flying.

Coupled with his daring, "Old Army," as they call Armstrong, had an unusual knack of getting close to his men. They worshiped him.

So General "Hap" Arnold wisely decided to capitalize on this by bringing Armstrong back to the U. S. A. to train the crews which were to undertake the most difficult bombing missions of the war — over industrial Japan.

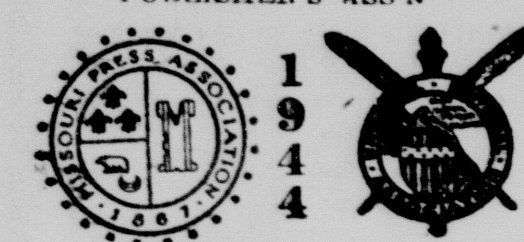

Knowing that Armstrong might

Tanks Speeding to Normandy Battlefield

Heavy fighting has been raging at the eastern end of the Allied beachhead in France, particularly around Caen. The Germans have thrown in their best Panzer divisions against the Canadians and British in an effort to break through and hinder the advance of the Americans beyond, but at least 80 of the attacking German tanks were destroyed in the first two weeks. This picture shows British tankmen hustling along a dusty French road from the landing beaches to the front at Tilly-sur-Seuilles, near Caen. By the roadside is an RAF Spitfire fighter which made a forced landing. (British Official Photo)

Another Normandy Town is Cleared of the Enemy

Not only are the heavy German attacks against the Canadians and British being stopped, but the Allied line is actually being pushed forward in spite of the enemy having concentrated his tanks in this sector. The British have captured Tilly-sur-Seuilles in bloody fighting, and Tommies are shown in this picture clearing enemy mines from the center of the town. As is evident, this was the scene of very heavy fighting, with numerous British and German tanks slugging it out. Wrecked vehicle in the picture is a British Bren gun carrier. British troops have this week launched an attack which has already carried them several miles beyond this town in a thrust deeper into enemy lines. (British Official Photo) be shot down sooner or later if he insisted on flying with his men over Germany, Arnold ordered "Old Army" home and out to Grand Island, Nebraska. There, above the prairies of Kansas and Nebraska, he has been training the men who raided Japan and who will make many more such raids before the war is over.

Courting Willkie
Backstage maneuvering to inveigle Wendell Willkie into the Dewey camp without actually committing Dewey himself to any principles Willkie stands for, has reached ludicrous dimensions. All sorts of people are acting as alleged go-betweens for Dewey and Willkie — or trying to.

Latest was a weird story that Clare Booth Luce, comely congresswoman from Connecticut had sessioned with Willkie. The story actually got into print — apparently inspired by Albany. But it wasn't true. Here is the real inside on what did happen.

Willkie was week-ending with friends in Connecticut when Mrs.

Luce phoned, asking if he could come to her nearby home for a talk. Willkie happened to have other engagements. But even if he hadn't had them, Connecticut political friends got the impression that he was not anxious to talk Dewey politics, even with the beautiful Clare.

Anyway, he didn't. But out of Albany ten hours later, came a story that he had seen Mrs. Luce and that she was vamping him into the Dewey corner. The fact that the story came from Albany is considered significant. Obviously, the Dewey camp knew of Mrs. Luce's plan, perhaps inspired it. All of which appears to bear out the opinion of political prognosticators that Willkie can swing about ten percent of the vote whichever way he wants it.

Note — Willkie has made it absolutely clear to close friends that he is interested in just one thing — a peace written with such statesmanship that there will never be another war. His political weight will be thrown on the side which offers the greatest promise of that goal.

Merry-Go-Round

War Manpower officials say they are getting much better cooperation from employees than from employers in working out the new hiring program. Although the plan was originated to aid employers, a lot of them don't seem to realize that they have to contact their local U. S. Employment Service if they want to get its benefits. Until the local USES director knows what a company's labor needs are, he can't help solve them. . . . GOP officials in Chicago asked entertainer Harry Richman to sing at the Republican convention. He replied: "I'll be glad to if the Republican party withdraws its anti-Semitic candidates for congress from Illinois."

... The war department is getting requests that Southwestern Army camps be turned over, after the war, to asthma, hay fever, and tuberculosis victims.

A Novel By KETTI FRINGS

To Those Who Came In Late:
This is the story of what happened to Pinky Harrison after he was killed in a foxhole. The scene is Heavenly Bend Junction, half-way point between the Earth and Big Valley. Travelers stay here until they stop looking back to Earth.

XXI

GOD was thoughtful for a moment, then spoke again: "I've been going over this miracle book here . . . see, I always kept track, so I wouldn't repeat myself too often. People are funny, you know — they like variety."

"All the miracles are in there?"
"That's right, son. And this time I've got to pick the right one. Not just any little old miracle." Now again, he began turning the pages. "Loaves and fishes . . . that's no good. Walking on water . . . Again he shook his head.

"Maybe just a plain good old-fashioned one," Pinky suggested. A sudden idea had occurred to him, was burning inside him.

The old man noted the eager look in his eyes. "Like what?"

"Like raising the dead."

"That is old-fashioned."

"That's why it would be good! Don't you see? They know what that means! They'd remember from the last time." Pinky talked on, persuading him, and the more the old man thought about it, the more he liked the idea.

"That's what I'll do," he said finally, closing the notebook and putting it away. "I'll send someone back—as a prophet too, like I did last time."

Pinky stood before him

now, tense and pleasing. "Please, sir, send me."

FOR once the old man hadn't been aware of what was on Pinky's mind. He'd been so wrapped up with his own conception of the idea that he hadn't given Pinky's hope a thought. It hurt him now to have to tell him, explaining it as gently as he could.

"I just couldn't, Pinky. I'd like to. But you're a full-grown man. I'm afraid they wouldn't take much stock in you, because you've done bad things in your life—not very bad, but you were bitter and discouraged at times. This should be somebody as pure as the day he was born. Besides—" he hesitated a moment—"I sent a son last time. This time I think I'll—"

Pinky understood now, interrupted quietly. "You're sending our daughter back to Martha."

Pinky turned away, struggled for control. But he knew the old man was right, perfectly right—and well, it was right for Martha, too. And maybe, for the world.

"Where is she?" he asked quietly. "I'd like to hold her first, just once."

"Out in the Square, I guess. Emily found an old carriage in the attic, took her for a walk." Slowly the old man moved over to the boy, put his arm around him. "Pinky, thanks for taking it like this. And there's one more thing I feel I ought to tell you. It'll mean sending Timothy to take her back. He knows the way . . . he knows Martha."

"That's all right, sir."

The old man got his hat, and they started for the door—just as Emily ran up the walk, calling in a frightened voice. "Father, Father! Hurry!"

SAMMY GRASS had gathered quite a crowd . . . and was opening his speech with lengthy

The second annual convention of the Mayors' Association of the fourth class cities of Missouri ended this afternoon with Dr. W. R. Patterson of Tipton, being appointed secretary. Tuesday night the delegates were given a "smoker" and reception at the Liberty Park hotel by the citizens of Sedalia. Brief addresses were made by the visitors and also by ex-Mayor P. D. A horse driven by Edward Hurley, who was in a buggy with two young ladies, became frightened last evening when stopped in front of the Arlington pharmacy, the scare being during the passing of M. B. Coleman's automobile. Refreshments were being served the occupants of the buggy and soda water glasses and spoons went flying in all directions. Other than dresses of the young ladies being soiled there was no damage.

Ex-Policeman Ben Cooper, now in business at Pilot Grove, was a visitor here on the way home from Kansas City.

Frank B. Moore, night editor of the New York Commercial, arrived this afternoon for a visit with his sister, Mrs. E. B. Burrows.

WOMAN OVERCOMES HER CONSTIPATION!

"Once Took Laxatives 3 or 4 Times a Week," She Says!

Are you, too, a disappointed "doser"? Then read this unsolicited letter!

"I'd started working nights, and with my way of living changed around, I soon found I was taking 3 or 4 laxatives a week, and feeling terrible. Then I heard about KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN through your radio program. 'The Breakfast Club.' Since taking my daily helping of ALL-BRAN, I am regular as clockwork. Thanks for what your ALL-BRAN has done for me!" Mrs. Myrtle Wood, 274 Baumanville St., Akron, Ohio.

Yes, it does seem like magic, the way KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN helps so many people. "Gets at" one common cause of constipation—lack of enough dietary "cellulose" elements! That's because ALL-BRAN is one of Nature's most effective sources of these elements—which help the friendly colonic flora fluff up and prepare the colonic contents for easy, natural elimination! KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN is not a purgative! It's a gentle-acting, "regulating" food!

If your constipation is this kind, eat KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN regularly, with milk and fruit, or mixed with other cereals. Drink plenty of water. See if you don't find real help! Insist on genuine ALL-BRAN, made only by Kellogg's in Battle Creek.

National League Wins 7-1 Victory In All-Star Game

Most One-Sided Defeat For The American League In Twelve Years

By ORLO ROBERTSON
FORBES FIELD, Pittsburgh, July 11—(AP)—The National League handed the American League its most one-sided defeat in 12 years of all-star history last night, blasting out a 7-1 victory to break the junior circuit's three-year monopoly on baseball's dream game.

In style reminiscent of many of the American League's eight triumphs since the diamond stars started getting together in 1933, the National Leaguers pounded out 12 hits while four of their pitchers checked the men coached by Marse Joe McCarthy of the Yanks with six blows—all singles and five of them off Bucky Walters of the Cincinnati Reds in the first three innings.

$106,275 In Funds
A crowd of 29,589 which, with the help of $25,000 from radio rights, put $106,275 into the league's bat and ball fund for service men, saw the American League stars jump away to a one-run lead in the second inning and then settled back as if expecting the game to go the usual way.

But with the passing of Walters, the McCarthy men found themselves checked by the combined hurling of Ken Raffensberger, Phillies' southpaw; Rip Sewell, the Pirates' blooper ball hurler, and Boston's Jim Tobin of flutter ball fame.

Borowy Left At Third
Hank Borowy, ace of the Yankee mound staff, left the game at the end of the third with a chance to win the game since he personally had put the American League in front with a run-scoring single in the second.

But Tex Hughson was unable to hold off the rampaging Nationals. They jumped on him for four runs in the fifth inning, picked up two more at the expense of Detroit's Hal (Lefty) Newhouser in the seventh and added their seventh tally in the eighth off the Tiger southpaw without getting a hit.

Meanwhile, Raffensberger gave up only one hit in two innings before retiring for pinch hitter Bill Nicholson of Chicago, who started Billy Southworth's stars on their way with a double. Sewell, hurling the sixth, seventh and eighth frames and Tobin the ninth set their rivals down in order.

Cut Loose In Fifth
Until the Nationals cut loose in the fifth they had got only three hits but were robbed of a run in the first when Stan Spence of the Senators made a great throw to the plate to complete a double play.

Connie Ryan, fiery Braves' second sacker, opened the fifth with a single, and stole second as Hughson struck out Marty Marion. Nicholson batted for Raffensberger and responded by lining a double down the right field foul line. That blow tied the score.
